ALBANIA ENDS ALLIANCE WITH TITO

Economic Relations Shattered

Yugoslavs Told To 'Get Out'

LONDON—(UP)—Albania has broken off economic relations with Yugoslavia, a dispatch of the Tanjug News agency from Belgrade revealed today.

The Yugoslav news agency revealed Albania's economic break with Belgrade after Yugoslavia had charged Albania with gross and insulting acts aimed at showing Albanian support of the cominform denunciation of Marshal Tito and his regime.

A dispatch broadcast from Belgrade and picked up here said Albania has denounced its currency and customs union with Yugoslavia, under which the economies of the two nations were closely integrated.

Albania also has demanded that Yugoslavs sent to Albania to aid that country's reconstruction be withdrawn immediately. The actions were taken in notes from Tirana June 30 or July 1, the news agency said.

The Yugoslav government handed three notes to the Albanian minister in Belgrade protesting various maneuvers by the Albanians. The protest was spiked with a stiff warning that the Albanian government would be held responsible.

The outbreak of friction between Belgrade and Tirana served further to emphasize the isolation of Yugoslavia by the defiance of the cominform attack. Albanian was one of the states which Yugoslavia had proposed to join in a Balkan alliance as a counter-move in the struggle within the ranks of European communism.

YUGOSLAV PROTEST

One of the Yugoslav protest notes to Albania said Albanian authorities had cut off exports of oil and coal to Yugoslavia, halted work on railroads linking the two countries, and slowed down the handling of Yugoslav ships in Albanian ports.

The Yugoslavs demanded that exports and rail work be resumed, and that Albania send a delegation to Belgrade to take up matters of economic cooperation in keeping with an agreement the neighbors reached last April.

Another note demanded the punishment of Albanians accused of insulting Tito by taking down pictures of him in public places and by other actions "aimed at destroying Yugoslav prestige."

Should such offensive acts continue, the Yugoslavs said, they cannot be responsible for the consequences.

The third note charged that Elspiro Szenito, chief of the political administration of the Yugoslav army, had been ordered summarily to leave Albania. He had been attached to the Albanian army at request of Albania, the note said.

Street Extension Delays 1-Way Plan

City Needs E. Fifth Property

Council Studies Traffic Proposal

City council's traffic committee decided last night that the proposed one-way street program in Mansfield will have to wait until the city settled its dispute with the Mansfield Telephone company over extension of East Fifth street.

Committeemen concurred with the report of Frend C. Boals, traffic commissioner, on the extension. Boals had termed the extension vital to the one-way street program and eventual elimination of traffic congestion in downtown Mansfield.

The city is temporarily stymied because the Mansfield Telephone company, which owns land on the needed right-of-way, has refused to sell. The land could be obtained by the city through condemnation proceedings.

As a stop-gap measure, the committee proposed additional "no parking" zones on Main, Fourth and Walnut streets to ease the traffic congestion.

Although no definite legislative program was drawn up, the committee members plan to bring several issues before the entire council at the regular meeting Tuesday evening.

BRINGS ACTION

Last night's meeting, at the home of Councilman Thomas Wright, followed a promise of quick action made by Michael A. Mihalick, committee chairman, on Wednesday after Vurnon L. Johnson, Cleveland Traffic engineer, presented a report on Mansfield traffic at the request of the Chamber of Commerce.

Among other things, Johnson urged one-way traffic be set up on these streets: Main street southbound and Diamond street northbound; Fourth street eastbound and Fifth street westbound; East First street eastbound and East Second street westbound; Newman street southbound and Wayne street northbound.

The committeemen last night considered in detail Johnson's report as well as recommendations made by Boals in his annual report last December.

Boals was present to give committeemen first-hand knowledge of the city's traffic situation.

Ernest Adams, city electrician, provided technical information on equipment needs to fulfill the recommendations of the Cleveland engineer to purchase special controllers for the operation of traffic signals in progression. No action was taken on this phase of the program.

Ship Burns, Crew Saved

NEW YORK —(AP)— Raging flames swept the 5,000-ton Swedish steamship Dagmar Salen 10 miles off the Delaware coast today but all members of its crew were saved after abandoning the vessel.

The fire, breaking out in the ship's engine room, spread quickly to the superstructure. The crew took to lifeboats at 3:49 a. m. (EST).

One crewmen was reported injured. A Coast Guard PBY plane was sped from Floyd Bennet field to pick him up and fly him to a hospital.

The master of the S. S. Perla, which reached the scene shortly after the Dagmar Salen sent out its distress message, said he had picked up half of the crew. Later, along with other crewmen still in lifeboats, the rescued seamen were transferred to the Coast Guard cutter Gentian.

The Gentian poured streams of water into the blazing ship and the Coast Guard said later the fire was coming under control slowly and was "believed to be stopped from spreading."

The Dagmar Salen ordinarily carries a crew of 38.

Second Man Questioned In Murder

Calls Confessor Of Crime 'a Rat'

CLEVELAND — Cleveland police today continued to question 20-year-old Edward (Red) Burrell, accused of complicity in the April 24 rape-slaying of Mrs. Ilda Moorehouse Koogle, former Plymouth woman.

Burrell was named as an accomplice in the killing by self-confessed slayer James Buchanan, 24.

Conducted on a tour of the murder area yesterday, Burrell was visibly shaken but denied any part in the crime.

At one point in the questioning, detectives told Burrell that Buchanan had confessed to beating Mrs. Koogle, a native of Perry, to death.

"He's a rat!" Burrell screamed, his eyes filling with tears.

The victim, who worked for several years before her marriage as a trimmer at the Hanick millinery store in Plymouth, was found beaten to death near her home at 15119 Terrace road, East Cleveland.

Buchanan, the father of three and a recent arrival from Fayetteville, Tenn., reportedly confessed yesterday to 16 other street assaults in recent months.

Huey Long's Son Seeking Senate Seat

BATON ROUGE, La. —(UP)— Russell Long, 29-year-old son of the late U. S. Sen. Huey P. (Kingfish) Long, was scheduled to open his campaign for a Senate seat today with an 11 a. m. speech at Leesville, La.

Young Long formally announced his candidacy yesterday. He will enter the Aug. 31 primary for the seat left vacant by the death of Sen. John H. Overton.

Long's candidacy has been an open secret since his uncle, Gov. Earl K. Long, indicated several weeks ago that Russell would seek the post and gave him the administration's backing.

Russell, the image of his late father, made it official in an announcement of a platform that closely parallels the one that carried his famous father to the senate.

He pledged himself to "work for greater federal aid to education, for highways, for social security and old age benefits, and for our school lunch program."

Flood Lasts For 45 Days

PORTLAND, Ore.—(AP)—Forty-five days from its start, the Columbia river flood will end here Monday.

The weather bureau forecast that the river would get back in its banks at the 18-foot level then for the first time since May 22.

That will be the official finale, going into the books as the second longest Pacific Northwest flood. Only the 54-day flood of 1894 exceeds this year's.

WILL EXTEND TURNPIKE

HARRISBURG, Pa. — (AP) — Pennsylvania's $70,000,000 high-speed turnpike connecting Pittsburgh and Harrisburg probably will be extended to the Ohio line in the vicinity of Youngstown, Gov. James H. Duff said yesterday.

Big Boom For 'Ike' Develops

Drive By Dems Sweeps Nation

WASHINGTON — (INS)— The drive to make General Dwight Eisenhower the Democratic party's candidate for president swept across the nation today like a prairie fire.

Starting in the South, the "Stop Truman" movement spread west to California and then picked up strength in Illinois, New York and Michigan.

Three powerful Democratic leaders, Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York, James Roosevelt of California, son of the late President, and Jacob M. Arvey of Chicago, have called a preconvention rally to oppose the nomination of President Truman.

The rally will take place in Philadelphia next Saturday and will endeavor to unify the drive to draft Eisenhower which has gained great momentum during the past 24 hours.

MIGHT BACK DOUGLAS

If the anti-Trumanites are finally unable to draft the former Army chief of staff to take the nomination, it is said they will back Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas.

Telegrams, reportedly in the names of O'Dwyer, Roosevelt and Arvey, have been sent to 1,234 Democratic delegates asking them to keep an open mind on the candidates for the presidential nomination.

In California, James Roosevelt was pictured as taking a position close to the driver's seat in the draft of Eisenhower. It was said he has lieutenants in the middle west lining up support for the Columbia university president.

It was also reported that Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas, California liberal, is under discussion as the one to place the name of the general in nomination week after next in Philadelphia.

In the South, eleven states appeared set to throw their 298 votes behind Eisenhower.

Reds Weaker In Finland

HELSINKI —(UP)— Communists dropped to third rank among Finnish political parties today as counting of returns in the nation-wide parliamentary elections neared completion.

But it was believed that a new government will be formed on the same basis as the present one—a coalition including the Communists with the Social Democratic and Agrarian parties.

The Popular Democrats (Communist), also known as the Democratic union, appeared to have lost six seats, leaving them 45 representatives in the new parliament.

The Social Democrats picked up four for a total of 53, and the Agrarians gained two for a total of 50.

About 1,430,000 votes of an approximate 1,700,000 votes cast had been tabulated. In round figures, these were the results:

Social Democrats 347,600; Agrarians, 346,100; Popular Democrats (Communist), 279,000; Conservatives, 234,000; Swedish party, 126,000; Liberals, 63,200; and other minor parties, 5,100.

The conservatives picked up three seats for a total of 32, while the Swedish party lost two and will have only 12, and the Liberals lost one and will have only eight.

The count was on a complicated proportional representation basis, and exact figures probably will not be available for some time.

Police Crack Numbers Ring

DETROIT —(AP)—A UAW-CIO committeeman was under arrest today as suburban Dearborn police claimed to have cracked a $5,000,000 a year numbers ring inside the Rouge plant of the Ford Motor company.

Police Chief Ralph Guy said a warrant charging bribery would be asked against the committeeman, Edward Hester, 38.

Hester was arrested, Guy said, in the chief's office in a trap set by police.

Shultz Hints At Action Soon

City Pay Boosts Seen By Aug. 1

Prospects that city employes in Mansfield will get pay increases about Aug. 1 appeared bright today.

Charles N. Shultz, chairman of city council's finance committee, said today that his committee and the council salary committee probably will meet next week to go over the problem of providing wage increases for the city's firemen, policemen and service department personnel.

There was no indication as to how much or what type of increases would be granted, because that is limited by the amount of money available in the city treasury.

The heads of the city departments have submitted job evaluation reports to the salary committee headed by Councilman Harry Bowman. These reports rate each job according to the responsibility and difficulty and establish a proportionate wage scale based on the ratings.

Although this plan has been placed before the salary committee and is generally favored by the employes, there has been talk in informed sources about granting a straight across the board increase.

It was reported that a $10-a-month increase for all workers is being considered. Others place the figure at $15.

Shultz said that as soon as a pay increase ordinance is drawn up, a special meeting of council will be called so that the raises can be put into effect on Aug. 1.

Knutson Pledges Slash In Taxes

WASHINGTON —(UP)— Chairman Harold Knutson of the House ways and means committee said today that a Republican congress next year would make "substantial reductions in excise taxes" and possibly "a further cut in income taxes in 1950."

The Minnesota Republican made the predictions in a formal statement commenting on yesterday's treasury announcement of a $8,400,000,000 budget surplus for fiscal 1948.

Parley Held On Blockade

BERLIN—(UP)—The American, British and French military governors in Germany met today with Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Russian military governor, in a last-ditch effort to settle the Berlin crisis at a local level.

It was believed that if Sokolovsky failed to give indications that the starvation blockade of the German capital will be lifted promptly by the Russians, a joint three-power protest will made direct to Moscow.

Gens. Lucius D. Clay, Sir Brian Robertson, and Pierre Koenig, military governors for the United States, Britain and France respectively, went to the headquarters of Marshal Sokolovsky in the Russian sector of the city for the conference.

It was believed the conference was at the invitation of Sokolovsky, in reply to a letter sent him by Robertson demanding to know what Russia proposed to do about lifting the surface blockade which has cut Berlin off from the western zones of Germany since June 19.

Heat Wave Grips City

Temperatures In 90s Promised for Holiday

There'll be heat aplenty for Mansfield's Fourth of July celebrators.

Hot and humid weather for the week end was promised today by the U. S. weather bureau. Temperatures are expected to climb into the 90's, with the high for today possibly reaching 92.

The heat wave gripped the entire midwest, extending eastward from Nebraska into Indiana and from southern Minnesota to the Gulf of Mexico.

Comparatively cool air covered the northern Great Lakes where many a Mansfielder will spend the holiday week end.

In Mansfield, the heat followed a day in which the high temperature of 74 was reached at 5 p. m. Friday. That reading had been topped by noon today, when the Airport Weather Bureau reported a temperature of 83.

In Cleveland, Forecaster A. S. Klemetsmo said outdoor conditions should be excellent except for late afternoon thundershowers Sunday and Monday.

Gilead Opens Celebration

MT. GILEAD—Morrow county's three-day centennial celebration opened today as hundreds of neighboring townspeople flocked into the city for community homecomings and reunions.

The program for today included a pet parade and street dance starting at 2:30 p. m. and ending at midnight. The first presentation of the Morrow county centennial pageant will highlight tomorrow's day-long program which will open with historical church services.

Athletic contests, a horse show and a lengthy parade will close the celebration Monday evening.

Water Famine Acute

ASHLAND—Drastic measures were being planned today to prevent a complete breakdown of the city's water supply.

A meeting of the city board of health was called. A state health department sanitary engineer promised to visit the city next week to discuss the situation.

The water shortage, caused by inadequate filtering facilities, continued to hit Ashland's south and west sections the hardest. Water is available there only at intervals.

Lack of filtration equipment prevents filling the standpipe south of town since the pumps must be shut off at intervals to permit cleaning of sludge from filter beds at the waterworks.

City officials renewed pleas for speedier delivery of pipe for the filtration beds, part of a $350,000 waterworks improvement program to be completed next year. Work on the beds is at a standstill for lack of the pipe.

Mayor Louis E. Mansfield said he would ask council Tuesday to enact emergency legislation forbidding sprinkling of lawns.

MAYOR LAYS BLAME

He blamed the current water famine partly on non-compliance with a request earlier this year for public conservation of water. He asserted that earlier administrations had failed to take action to increase filtering facilities.

The lack of water pressure will not deprive the city of fire protection, the mayor said. He explained that booster pumps could keep the city mains well filled with unfiltered water but, in such an emergency, all drinking water would need to be boiled.

Fire Chief Paul Soles said three of the five city trucks are equipped with 200-gallon booster tanks and two with 100-gallon tanks. Only an extreme fire emergency would cause him to demand pumping untreated water into the mains, he said, because of the danger to the health of the city.

Steel Faces Coal Tieup

WASHINGTON —(UP)— Government officials saw no chance today of blocking a threatened strike next Tuesday in the "captive mines" that feed coal to the nation's biggest steel producers.

The national labor relations board was taking preliminary steps toward getting a no-strike order against John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers. But officials said there was no hope of completing the case before the strike deadline.

They said a strike appeared inevitable unless the UMW (1) abandons its policy of no contract, no work or (2) drops its demand for a union shop contract with the steel producers without a national labor relations board election.

Lewis had only a "no comment at this time."

The administration's economic experts expressed grave concern over the effects of a strike that would disrupt steel production. They said it would play hob with both the domestic economy and the government's efforts to fulfill its commitments to foreign nations.

Ten big steel companies which account for 85 per cent of the country's steel yesterday charged Lewis with attempting to coerce them into signing a union shop contract in violation of the Taft-Hartley act.

Fighters Stab 'Peace-Maker'

A Mansfield man who acted as a "peace-maker" in a fight last night, found himself in General hospital under treatment for a stab wound in the back. He was released a short time later.

The man, Stacey Griffin, of 258 North Franklin avenue, told police he was trying to stop a fight between two other men, both of whom he said were from out-of-town, when he was stabbed with a knife in the right side of his back by one of them.

The altercation occurred on North Adams street near Sixth street sometime between 10 and 10:30 p. m., Griffin said. He told police he would not file charges.

Attacks Renew Neighborhood's Horror

Oklahoma Murder Maniac Eludes Police

TULSA, Okla. —(UP)— More than a score of police and detectives were assigned today to find the "murder mad" maniac who beat a woman to death and bludgeoned another woman and two girls.

The attacks threw the neighborhood where they occurred into renewed horror.

It was the same residential district, squeezed in between railroad tracks and factories, where five persons had been murdered in the last five years.

Police Chief G. W. Holinsworth, County Attorney Elmer Adams, and Police Commissioner J. Fred Lawrence jr., dropped other duties to direct the manhunt.

Two men already had been arrested, but police said they had furnished alibis and probably would be released.

BLUDGEONS THREE

Detective Capt. J. D. Bills said the "club-swinging maniac" first broke into the home of Mrs. J. B. Cole, 37, a widow, Thursday night. He bludgeoned her, her 13-year-old daughter, Doris, and Doris' girl friends, Lavon Babbard, 14, who was spending the night there.

Then, neighbors heard the screams of the woman and the girls and saw a hatless man in white shirt and dark trousers run from the house.

The madman then broke into the first floor apartment of Mrs. Ruth Norton, 40, and beat her to death.

Police said their main clues so far were a sack containing a bloody towel found in the front yard of the Cole home, and a bloody towel found wrapped around Mrs. Norton's head.

They were sent to the police laboratory to be checked for fingerprints.

Holiday Toll Set At 235

As the National Safety council today estimated 235 persons would be killed in traffic accidents over the three-day Fourth of July holiday, police and state patrol officials issued a plea to motorists to use caution as they travel on the nation's highways.

With 19 persons reported dead as a result of accidents in the nation since 6 p. m. Friday, the council urged the public to use discretion in handling fireworks and while swimming, eating, drinking and driving. One of the deaths reported in the initial survey was in Ohio.

The council said the 30,000,000 motorists expected to head for vacation lands and lakes over the extended week end could do much to lower the annual slaughter if they would use more caution. The toll last year was 532, including 255 traffic, 163 drowning, five fireworks and 109 miscellaneous fatalities.

The following rules were offered by the council to cut the toll to a minimum:

1. Don't speed. Be patient and courteous in heavy traffic.
2. Don't drink if you drive.
3. Don't permit children to have fireworks. Attend public displays instead.
4. Don't overdo in exercise, eating, or exposure to sun.
5. Don't swim alone, know the depth of the water, wait an hour after eating, and don't show off in the water or in boats.

Police Capture Safe-Cracker Rated As 'Best In World'

NEW YORK—(INS)—An anaemic little man who said he was dying slowly of stomach ulcers, who worked as a machinist by day and a master burglar by night, was arrested Friday as "the world's greatest safe-cracker"

New York police said his methods would make "Jimmy Valentine look like a piker" and the sinister efficiency of his work is said to have cost many innocent citizens their jobs.

The ace safecracker is 50-year-old William C MacLaren and police said his arrest solved the mystery of a series of safe-cracking jobs in which no trace was left by the burglar.

MacLaren's method was to manipulate the knobs with his super-sensitive figners, and listening to the fall of the tumblers, open the safe, rob it and close it again.

His super-efficiency led many an employer to believe his cafe had been entered by an "inside job."

The day-and-night search for MacLaren, who once served a Sing Sing sentence in connection with a $250,000 series of bond robberies in the financial district in 1936, began three and a half months ago.

It ended today, police said. in front of a loft building, detectives watched MacLaren enter the building, climb to the third floor offices of Riker and company, real estate brokers, and open the safe —which was empty.

2 Richland 4-H Members Go to Camp

Earn Week's Outing At Center Near Utica

Two Richland county participants in 4-H club work will go to the state 4-H junior leadership camp at Camp Ohio, near Utica, Monday through Saturday.

Miss Mabel Spray, home demonstration agent, said the two are Betty Ann Hutchinson of Plymouth township and Royce Smith of Franklin township.

She said they were chosen on the basis of their work as junior leaders and for their records in 4-H club work.

Miss Spray will go to the camp as an instructor in the planning of vesper services and 4-H demonstration activities

The program includes sessions on camping and 4-H club activities.

There will be two representatives from each county in Ohio. The sessions are sponsored jointly by the agricultural extension service of Ohio and the Ohio Farmers Insurance company.

Teen-Time Readers Plan Swim Party

The Teen-Time reading club will hold a picnic and swimming party at Liberty park on July 8. Members will bring their own lunches and meet at the Mansfield Public Library at noon. The club will go in a group to the park by bus.

Pat Doner presided at the last meeting held at the library. Two games, "What's My Title?" and "scrambled titles," kept the members guessing.

The July 15 meeting will be held at the library at 2:30 p. m. Hermina Rehberg will be chairman.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Drive carefully tomorrow and Monday—remember, this is another of those dangerous week-ends.

A thought in favor of a six-year term for president is that thus national conventions would be held less frequently.

The summer session has opened in the School of Experience—and the pain of sunburned backs is a part of the training.

Dissension Behind the Iron Curtain

VARIOUS interpretations are being given to the rupture of relations between Russia and Yugoslavia and more time will apparently be required for outsiders to reach a full understanding of causes and purposes.

Although the Yugoslav government is communist in nature and is counted within the Soviet sphere, yet the government has not followed the communist pattern in all respects, and Tito has been a sometimes obnoxious individualist.

It has been inferred that the Politburo has decided it is time to make the satellites of the Russian bloc of states completely communistic. This might involve throwing out all non-communist parties in states, such as Yugoslavia and Hungary, where such parties still exist, and eliminating all vestige of co-operation between the communists and non-communists.

Success in such an undertaking would immeasurably strengthen the Soviet bastion in Europe. Failure would reveal a weakness behind the iron curtain, could result in partial loss of the hold on some of the satellites.

When a 'Surplus' Isn't a Surplus

ANNOUNCEMENT that the federal government has a budget surplus of nearly eight billion dollars for the year ended June 30, becomes less encouraging when it is explained that the surplus is just "a figure on paper."

The figures become quite confusing to the layman. Almost 6.7 billions was applied to reduction of the federal debt; 1.4 billions was added to the cash balance; 3 billions is to be earmarked for the foreign aid program. This leaves only 5 billions surplus, really, and the paper transactions go on.

The comforting facts remain that the government did spend less than it received last year, and did make a reduction in the outstanding debt. The debt figure is expected to stand at about 251 billions as of the end of the year. It can readily be seen that this debt is so large that any surplus of actual cash is quickly swallowed up.

Promptness with which a substantial budget surplus melted away in debt reduction suggests the wisdom of cutting the debt as much as possible while a boom economy persists. The huge debt will be a heavy burden when the lean years come.

Advance In Preventing Tooth Decay

PREVENTION of tooth decay, through the use of sodium fluoride, is being acclaimed as having reached such a degree of success that many communities are now planning campaigns to open the way for all school children to receive this treatment.

An article in the July issue of Woman's Home Companion treats this subject in an informative way, including a statement that: "Practically all of the nation's 75,000 dentists can give treatments right now and any alert community can launch its own program."

Tooth decay is mentioned as "the most prevalent of all diseases," it being estimated that 98 per cent of all Americans who have teeth, have decay.

While chief attention has been given to prevention of decay in children's teeth, by use of the fluoride treatment, experiments indicate that it is also effective in preventing tooth-decay among adults.

The magazine article suggests: "Any active woman's club or civic group could swing into action today, enlist the co-operation of Parent-Teacher associations, local school authorities and public-spirited dentists—and have a full-fledged program for school children under way within thirty days."

There is already some indication of local interest in this subject, but, like other things, any potential accomplishment will require leadership and direction.

Convention Without 'Conveniences'

ONE curious piece of convention lore, dug up by the late Henry L. Stoddard, writer on political subjects, is that one convention was held in a church. It is to be found in his book, "Presidential Sweepstakes," published just after his death. This was the Whig convention of 1839 which nominated William Henry Harrison.

Another odd feature about the same gathering was that it took place almost a year before election, in December, 1839, while the election was not held until the following November. Inadequate transportation and communications were, of course, the reason. Railroads were less than ten years old, and the telegraph was not invented for another five years.

Texas Aspires to 'Tallest Building'

TEXAS, which dislikes playing second fiddle to anyone, is talking of building a structure that would be the tallest in the world. Houston is to have this marvel, which will be 1366 feet high. New York's Empire State building rises to 1265. The figure 1366 was apparently chosen because Moscow's unfinished Palace of the Soviets is 1365 feet high. This seems like a very slight margin of superiority. At any moment the Russians might re-measure their building, and announce that it really was four or five feet higher, or add a stone or two to achieve the result.

This struggle to erect the world's tallest building is nothing new. Readers of the Bible will recall one such attempt that ended in disaster—construction of the Tower of Babel.

What Some Other People Are Saying

FREDERICK OSBORN, deputy U. S. representative on UN Atomic Energy Commission, says: "The hope of the world for peace and the success of the effort of the nations with responsible governments to set up a co-operative world community appear to depend on a change in the point of view of the rulers of the Soviet people."

* * *

Federal Judge T. ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH, in announcing he would issue a permanent injunction against the long-threatened railroad strike, said if the walkout were permitted: "The whole economic and political structure would be upset. It's an extreme case."

* * *

Democratic Mayor WILLIAM O'DWYER denounced the New York Democratic organization known as Tammany Hall: "Leave the present Tammany Hall down in the gutter where it belongs. It's decrepit and you couldn't get it rejuvenated if you tried."

DeWitt Mackenzie's Column

Question: 'Can Communism Endure?'

CAN communism endure—that is, the Russian brand of bolshevism which has small relation to the ism as originally conceived generations ago or to socialism as practiced by numerous nations of western Europe?

This column previously has expressed the view that communism is likely to blow up in due course. I believe this because the ism is an evil thing which deprives man of his bill of rights and rules by terrorism. Nothing so bad can endure indefinitely. Now I want to expand on that idea a bit by giving you some facts.

For some years before the war a large percentage of the people of western Russia — especially farmers and other property owners — were mentally hostile to the bolshevist government.

Their attitude was largely one of unspoken resentment, for they soon learned that he who voiced disapproval would meet fierce punishment at the hands of the secret police.

All this is easily understandable when one recalls that the Slavs are liberty loving and often have battled for their freedom.

Came the World war, and when Hitler's forces invaded Russian territory they found many people not hostile but welcoming them as deliverers. A lot of folk actually offered their services to the Germans to expedite the defeat of the communist overlords. This was true wherever the Germans set foot on Russian-ruled soil.

Had the nazi fuehrer taken advantage of this situation, there is no telling how far he might have gone in his conquests. Eastern Europe appeared to be his plum pie.

* * *

Friendship Rejected.

HOWEVER, the nazi barbarian had other ideas and he rejected the friendly overtures. He issued instructions to his amazed and uneasy general staff that the invaded countries were to be subjugated. His plan was to turn them into German colonies, and use the natives as slaves.

This was the background of the wholesale nazi savagery in the invaded countries. There was much civilian slaughter, great destruction of property, and wholesale movements of populations to suit the fancy of those who were assigned to the colonization scheme by Hitler.

Well, we know what happened to Hitler and Hitlerism. They were too evil to exist for long, though they might have carried on much further had the fuehrer not made a bad mistake in judgment.

With the eviction of the Germans, the western areas of the soviet union resumed their place in the communist police state. But while they now had a bitter hatred for the Germans, they didn't like Red police rule any more than they did before the war. They accepted it because they had to.

Then came the Muscovite conquests in eastern Europe. Country after country was taken over by strong-arm methods and "communized." That is, communist-dominated governments were established, but the people by and large weren't communized. Many of them paid with their lives or liberty for their opposition to communism. Others fled to free lands where they live in exile.

So we see in Soviet dominated territories of eastern Europe a great mass of people who hate the servitude of communism, but thus far have found no way to escape it.

Twenty Years Ago Today

Tuesday, July 3, 1928.

Temperature reached 91 degrees in what was described as "early July heat wave."

Washington Calling

Inflation Marches On

By MARQUIS CHILDS

THESE are the dog days in Washington. The torrid heat has settled down and the streets have a deserted air, with sightseers conspicuous around the Capitol and the White House.

For six months there will be no government in Washington capable of making any major decision. That is a fact known behind the iron curtain and in western Europe as it is here in this country. Every four years under our system of government that gap exists.

Yet during the coming six months the world will not stand still. The tides of change are moving ever more swiftly in this period of stalemate.

And the very real danger is that events may take place that will make it impossible for any government to reverse the trend toward disaster.

The danger signals on the foreign front are plain enough. The next two to four weeks may see the need for decision on Germany that should be taken only a unified government, representative of a broad range of opinion.

It would be hard to minimize the seriousness of the contest with Russia that is now going on in Berlin. Out of it may come the dread inevitability of armed conflict that all policy-makers have hoped to avert. It is just possible, however, that there is a trend here at home that, if unchecked, can produce results almost as serious.

That is the spiral of inflation that has now brought prices to the highest level ever recorded. If this upward trend continues for the next six months, then the possibility of averting a crash will have been narrowed almost to zero. The incoming president will be handed a time bomb guaranteed to go off in late 1950, or perhaps earlier.

Along with that time bomb will go a $250 billon dollar debt that costs the taxpayers $5 billion a year just for interest. The existence of the debt will make it far more difficult for the president to overcome the effects of the crash through spending for public works and relief.

* *

Possible, But Unlikely.

CONCEIVABLY, the President might recall Congress if the showdown with Russia moved to the point of extreme peril. And, conceivably on such a grave issue, the Republican congress would come back to co-operate with the Democratic President.

But it is impossible to imagine the President calling Congress back to do something about inflation and the hundred and one domestic problems allied with it. While he may talk for political effect about recalling Congress to do its plain duty, he has indicated to those close to him that this is the last thing he wants.

And quite understandably so. Congress, in regular session, balked at most of the domestic measures sought by President Truman. A Congress called back to Washington in the summer heat and in the middle of a campaign would be about as co-operative as a brahma bull on the rampage. Nothing would come out of it but the loud and continuous sound of politics.

If the economic experts are right, the black line on the price index will continue to climb. The explosive charge in the time bomb will be bigger and more powerful.

The figures are already pretty startling. Food, which for the average family is the most important single item in the cost of living, is at 211, about a half a percentage point more than it was at the peak in January of this year. That is 44 points higher than in June of 1946, the last month OPA was in effect. It is 125 points higher than in August of '39.

Summary of Week's Happenings

Wages Mount as Prices Zoom Upward

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

THIS spring, industry took a stand against a third round of postwar wage increases for labor. That line cracked in May when General Motors agreed to an 11-cents-an-hour boost in conjunction with a cost-of-living sliding scale.

The bulge became a definite break-through when John L. Lewis won a raise of 12½ cents an hour and other bonuses for his United Mine Workers.

A court decision by Justice T. Alan Goldsborough — Lewis' former "nemesis" — provided the break in the coal stalemate. The judge upheld Lewis in his fight for $100 monthly pensions for miners over 62 with 20 years' service.

Judge Goldsborough, who previously had fined Lewis and his union $2,130,000 for defying injunctions against work stoppages, said the pension plan was "not at all unbusinesslike" but was in fact "meager." The mine operators, bowing to the court, went back to negotiating.

Lewis won a $1 a day increase —to $14.05 a day. This is 12½ cents an hour, compared to the 13 cents which the CIO United Auto Workers received from Chrysler, Hudson, Nash and several other auto makers. Lewis' miners also won a 20-cent royalty on each ton of coal mined to build up a $100,000,000-a-year welfare and retirement fund.

The GM Agreement.

Before the dramatic General Motors agreement, industry seemed determined to halt the wage-price spiral by holding down salaries. Managements of U. S. Steel, General Electric and Westinghouse, Ford, the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., all said "no" to requests for pay increases.

A bitter effort by CIO packinghouse workers to better the nine-cent hourly increase accepted from big meat packers by the rival AFL meat cutters resulted in a long and costly strike for the CIO. It finally had to settle for the nine-cent offer.

Against this united front, it looked as though there might be a major showdown this summer between labor and management as prices continued to soar. The Bureau of Labor Statistics placed the consumer price index at 170.5 on May 15 on the basis of 100 for the 1935-39 average.

But the GM settlement, followed quickly by similar wage increases for Chrysler and other motor plants changed the prospect.

Miners on Vacation.

Big Steel did not sign a contract with Lewis for its captive coal mines, possibly fearing the reaction it might have on the 920,000 members of the steelworkers union. Many industrial observers believe such a contract will be signed before the miners return from their annual 10-day vacation on July 6.

In any event, the Presidential Board of Inquiry told Mr. Truman the snag over the union shop, which the steel industry gave as its reason for not signing a coal contract when the other did, would not imperil the national health and safety.

At Home

Democrats Warm Up.

Philadelphia took a breather in between major political conventions this week by playing host to 30,000 Elks and their families. The national Elk conclave will wind up three days before July 12, the official opening of the Democratic national convention, but fraternal and political delegates will shoehorn in and out of Philadelphia's hotel rooms in as tight a squeeze as the city ever has experienced.

All told, there will be 50 per cent more Democrats than Republicans. The GOP delegates and alternates totaled 2,188 while the Democrats will have 3,192.

The first event on the pre-convention calendar is a meeting in Philadelphia July 9 of the Democratic National Committee. Seven members of President Truman's cabinet and Sen. Alben W. Barkley, the convention keynoter, will also sit in.

* * *

New Drug For Polio.

Two University of Rochester Medical School professors have developed a new drug, myanesin, which dramatically overcomes some crippling effects of infantile paralysis, cerebral palsy and other diseases.

It works by relaxing muscles that are twisted, rigid, or shaking uncontrollably because of nerve disorders. It does not help in 1940, was barred by parliament in paralysis or crippling where nerve pathways have been destroyed.

In 84 of 90 patients, it diminished or eliminated spasms, rigidity and involuntary muscle shaking, they said. Sometimes relief came within a half hour. In others, improvement came only after days of taking the medicine.

Another new drug, chloromycetin, reportedly takes only three days to crack typhoid fever, ordinarily considered a 30-day disease.

* * *

Super Shooting Stars.

The Air Force has contracted for new super Shooting Stars, a Lockheed jet fighter with a speed of 60 miles an hour. During the next two years 457 will be delivered.

The new model, F-80C, has a new engine with a higher rate of climb than its predecessor, the F-80B. The plane, whose development began a year ago in experiments at Moroc, Calif., air base, has six machine guns and carries two half-ton bombs in wing tip shackles.

* * *

Record Federal Surplus.

The government's budget surplus at the end of the fiscal year, June 30, set a new record. It was close to $8,000,000,000. The previous high was $1,155,000,000 21 years ago.

But the surplus is a figure on paper.

Most of the money itself—$6,683,000,000 — already had been used to lower the federal debt to about $251,600,000,000. The rest, about $1,400,000,000, went into the Treasury's coffers, swelling its cash balance (largely kept in banks over the country) to $4,800,000,000.

Abroad

Yugoslavia Revolt.

The Cominform threw the book at Tito and other Yugoslav communist leaders this week.

It accused them of conniving with western powers, conducting a "wrong" foreign and domestic policy, being "hateful" to Russia and of departing from the Marxist-Lenin line in favor of "nationalist" aims.

Unlike many other communists, the Yugoslavs talked back.

All the criticism, said the Yugoslav communist central committee, headed by Marshal Tito, was based on "lies" and "slander."

Belgrade headquarters cried, "An historic injustice has been done." It declared relations with Russia "must be based on confidence and not on spying."

* * *

To Be or Not to Be King.

Exiled King Leopold announced this week he will give up his crown if the Belgians do not want him but he wants a referendum on the issue.

Leopold, who surrendered the Belgian armies to the Germans in 1940, was barred by parliament in 1945 from returning to his country. He now lives in Switzerland. His brother, Prince Charles, is regent.

Leopold said Premier Paul Henri Spaak told him the government was unable to propose a settlement of the royal question to parliament and suggested he write a letter.

In his letter Leopold says:

"I am in favor of a general consultation of all Belgians. If this consultation does not bring an indisputable majority in favor of my return to the throne I shall then abdicate."

Quotes

Byron Price, United Nations assistant Secretary - General: "The world has become too small to go on living half free, half slave to war. This time we must triumph grandly or fail miserably."

President Truman, when asked whether he has any intention of quitting the political arena, snapped: "That's foolish question No. 1."

In Short

Spent: By the Republican national convention in Philadelphia, an estimated $5,000,000.

Accused: By Syria, an American warship off Palestine, of shelling Arab lines.

Inaugurated: By New York City, a 10-cent in place of its old 5-cent subway fare.

Rocked: Fukui province, Japan, by an earthquake, killing an estimated 3,155, injuring 7,750, all Japanese.

Added: By the government, to its civilian payroll during May, 15,865 workers, raising the total to 2,065,285.

Farmer's Diary

Delicious New Honey

By CALVIN A. BYERS

THE BEE inspector comes every year. This year his visit occurred at near noon, and we had a plate of fluffy dandelion and glistening alsike honey — part of a broken comb. I relished the flavor of this treat, since freshly made honeycomb adds much to the goodness of the honey it contains, in my opinion. Extracted honey serves a good purpose, but compare them, yourself! Fresh comb honey has something special.

The bee inspector is an expert in his line. I asked some questions which he cheerfully answered. All people who keep bees do not fully cooperate nor realize the need for this inspection, he admitted. But, by ridding the country of diseased bees, and by encouraging farmers to keep bees, the growth of such crops as clover seed and fruits is made more valuable.

In fact the greatest value of keeping bees is not the honey produced, but the indirect result of having bees around. Perfect pollination of crops depends upon bees.

Alsike clover, if properly fertilized, may produce five bushels per acre . . . I harvested that much 20 years ago, but not lately. Recently, any kind of clover seed, is very valuable—I paid $12 per bushel for the white sweetclover I planted this year—alsike was $40, and I couldn't afford it.

Now clover is the crop that brings nitrogen from the air into the earth—and clover makes the best animal food, being rich in protein. Cattle give rich milk when they are knee-deep in clover. There is a very real reason for the Biblical description of a prosperous land as one "flowing with milk and honey."

Beekeepers, like fisnermen, often get together and discuss their problems. Omitting some of the tall stories, these men are interesting.

There must be many swarms of bees that go wild and find homes in the woods hereabouts. We lost two or three swarms, this spring. I was ill, and there was nobody to hive them. They lingered in great brown blobs upon the plum trees for an hour or two and then sailed away. Over in a woodland, I saw bees going in and out of a broken chestnut snag. The hollow trunk roared with the busy noise of them and they came flying over the treetops straight to their home, from all points of the countryside.

Our three hives—one winter killed—are healthy and in good order. I shall put on a super or two and hope for a small share of the sweets.

Praise vs. Criticism

By ELSIE ROBINSON

I LIKE praise but I have learned not to attach any great importance to it. But I treasure every criticism which comes and give it careful and respectful study.

For it doesn't take much study to understand praise. A very small percentage of it is given from pure affection and admiration. The rest is merely a social lubricant. It serves to make things go more easily but it is dangerous to take it seriously.

It does not contribute to your self knowledge by giving you a constructive analysis of your work—indeed it is far more apt to gum the works by making you satisfied with yourself.

Not so with criticism, even obviously ill-natured criticism.

Long ago I made an amazing and valuable discovery about praise and criticism as applied to myself. At that time, like all young things, I lapped up all praise regardless of its quality and I really needed it for my growth.

But presently I learned that there wasn't a particle of foundation for most of the praise I received. The work I did came naturally and happily and, being in a public position, people would have praised me anyway, because they got a kick out of it, or were trying to work some scheme.

But every word of censure had some basis of truth. Even when the charges brought against me were not true the attitude which inspired those charges was my fault.

It took me some time to recognize and accept these facts. I have a very human fondness for myself. I want to believe myself right even when other people think I am wrong.

But I found that the other chap was generally correct and I also found that I would serve myself much better by weighing what he said than by getting hurt or angry.

Believe me, I have no desire to be an angel nor have I any prospect of being one. Pious propaganda to the contrary, I see nothing alluring in a harp. But I would like to be a successful, popular and helpful human being while here on earth. I want to do the square thing and be honored and loved for so doing.

AND I FOUND THAT THE SUREST WAY TO MAKE REAL FRIENDS IS TO TURN A DEAF EAR ON THOSE WHO PRAISE ME AND LISTEN LIKE THE DICKENS TO THOSE WHO BLAME.

STATEN ISLAND, N. Y.—(AP)—Eighty-two-year-old Capt. Charles Chase sits and watches with watery blue eyes the sea that first called him at the age of 12.

But the sea calls him no more. He gave it his life and his daughter and he's through with it now forever.

Capt. Chase, a man who knew the science of putting canvas against the wind, was crowded out by men who had learned the science of engines and turning propellers.

"I never had any use for steam—and I still don't," he said stubbornly.

Few veterans of the era of sail are still alive. There are only two—Captain Chase and George O'Neill, 91—among the 400 retired mariners living at the "Sailors' Snug Harbor" here, a home for old salts.

"The others aren't sailors—they're just poor old crippled hypocrites," said Cap'n Chase. He thinks neither the seamen nor the ships of today measure up to those in the days of the clippers.

★

He ran away himself from his Maine home at 12 to work under sail. He was in the Pacific island trade.

"I loved sail and I guess I stayed with it too long," he said. "When I turned from sail to steam it was too late. I never did get to understand steam."

Cap'n Chase spends his time now carving models of the graceful ships with crowding sails in which he spent his life.

"I remember there used to be three to five ships leave San Francisco every day," he said. "They were small ships—only about 100 feet long. We used to have two to three hundred pigs and maybe half a dozen mules on deck. About the third day the deck would be covered with flies, and the passengers'd begin to complain.

"The only way we could get rid of the flies was to stand to against the wind. That'd blow most of 'em off."

A sailor's life then was a cruel and prolonged duel with weather and hardship.

"O' course it was rough," mused the old captain. "Rough beyond anybody's knowing today. You wouldn't believe the truth of it. But being young and liking it—as a lot of us did—well, I can't sit here and tell you it was too bad.

"I'd like to see sail come back. But I know it never will."

Cap'n Chase made money seafaring and lost it later through bad investments. He said he had only one regret in his life.

"We were coming home from China once," he said. "I had my wife and baby daughter, Maude, aboard. The baby was only 2¼ years old. In those times whole families was born and raised aboard ship.

★

"We'd run through a storm. O' those cold nor'west winds a-blowin' down! When it calmed, my little girl came toddling out on deck. I picked her up and hugged her to me, forgettin' my wet oilskins.

"A couple hours later my wife came up and said the baby had caught cold. I went below. My baby was terribly sick. She died that night of pneumonia."

The next day he gave his daughter to the sea.

"All the years since then I been wondering whether it was my fault she caught cold," said the captain.

County Gets Big Check

$78,821 Received From Auto Fees

A check for $78,821, representing the second advance 1948 distribution of motor vehicle registration fees, was received today, County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe reported.

He said the sum would be distributed next week to the various districts for their road funds. Richland county will receive $59,599.

The distribution to districts follows:

Mansfield, $15,246; Bellville, $369; Butler, $178; Lexington, $224; Lucas, $203; Plymouth, $316; Shelby, $2,397; Shiloh, $196, and South Boulevards, $65.

Wolfe explained that the allocation is made by the state on the basis of the percentage of vehicle registrations in the districts. That explains why some districts with the same population receive more than others.

Of the total registration fees collected in Richland county, 23 per cent goes to the state, 47 per cent to the county, and 25 per cent for division among the villages and cities.

The remaining 5 per cent goes into an equalization state fund and is divided among the 88 counties.

Wolfe said that the fees for motor vehicles registered outside of a district go to the county also.

On April 13, $139,086 was received in the first distribution of the motor vehicle registration fees.

Also received today was the sum of $1,834 in poor relief [illegible] from the state for the month of April.

In addition, the July allocation of local government money was received. Wolfe said the check for $9,616 will be distributed among the county and the various subdivisions and townships.

WILDLIFE TROUBLE—

Mrs. Lois Pennell, county librarian, has been having wild life trouble while driving her bookmobile along Richland county highways. One day last week, a frightened bird flew in the rear window of the big truck, battered its wings against the windshield for a moment or two then perched on the defroster, as if trying to figure things out. Mrs. Pennell picked it up, examined it to see that it was unharmed then released it. Another day, the bookmobile had to make a sudden, unscheduled stop, she said, to give a young deer the right-of-way across the road. It came out of the weeds, crossed in front of the truck and leaped the ditch to go bounding away into the woods again.

Maxwell Level Up 10 Feet

Consumption Sets New Record

A normal amount of rain during the rest of the summer will avert any threat of of a water shortage in the city despite the fact that the new waterworks project has not been completed, O. C. Kalbfleisch, superintendent of the waterworks department, said today.

Kalbfleisch said the water table under the eight wells in the Maxwell Springs area is from 10 to 15 feet higher than at this time last year.

Heavy rains during the past month over most of the state have boosted the underground water supplies and should go a long way toward maintaining an even supply unless there is a prolonged dry spell, state health department spokesmen said.

Kalbfleisch said the wells have been producing more water this year to meet the greatest demand made on them in the history of the city.

DEMAND SETS RECORD

"The average daily consumption this week has been 6,800,000, some 500,000 more than the peak daily consumption last year," Kalbfleisch said.

He said the water level at the Woodland reservoir had been pulled down from 18 feet to 12 feet during the week, but started up this morning as industry shutdowns for the Fourth of July vacation.

"A long dry period might seriously threaten the water supply, but as things stand now, we are able to cope with the great demand, he declared.

"We do lose several feet at the reservoir during the week, but we are able to recoup our losses over the week end," Kalbfleisch pointed out, adding that the Maxwell field produced about 6,000,000 gallons daily and the Hedges and Brooker wells combined, about 700,000 to 800,000 gallons daily.

TEV AVIV —(U.P.)— Unimpeachable sources reported today that the government of Israel will reject Count Folke Bernadotte's proposals for permanent peace in Palestine.

Announcement of the rejection was expected to be delayed until next week.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Sports Chatter

COLUMBUS—Get ready to stick some cotton in your ears, if you plan to be in the Miami valley near Dayton anytime between Aug. 20 and Aug. 28.

The greatest gang of scattergun artists in history will be banging away those days in the Grand American trapshoot. The expected 2,000 entries will come from all the states, Canada's provinces, Alaska, the Canal Zone, Cuba and other spots in quest of trapdom's biggest prizes.

The leading arms and ammunition companies of the country take turns furnishing the traps and targets for the big barrage, and this time the Western Cartridge company gets the chores.

Col. Walter E. Siegmund, general sales manager of the firm, completed arrangements today for shipping the necessary equipment, and his order slip showed 38 traps and 1,500,000 targets. On top of that, some 2,000,000 12-gauge shotgun shells will be available.

The quarter-mile trapline at Vandalia has been extended, and where never more than 24 traps were used to toss the targets at previous stands, 36 will be in operation to accommodate the huge list of entries. A year ago the 1,748 competitors broke all previous marks, but that record is expected to fall this time.

★

The 1,500,000 clay targets—which wheel from the trap houses at about 60 miles an hour—may be stacked up like saucers in a cupboard. And if stacked that way, the "roaring grand" clays would soar 11.8 miles into the air.

If placed side by side, they would stretch in a single line more than 100 miles. And to break them, more than 52 tons of lead pellets will be fired from the 12-gauges of all types, makes and ages.

Each shell is limited to an ounce and one-eighth of shot, generally size 7 or 7½, and the small pellets scatter over a fairly wide path in front of the traps.

About every three years the area is mined, scrapers picking up the top layers of the earth from which the shot is extracted in much the same fashion as a threshing machine separates wheat from the chaff.

★

Ohio trapshooters, fresh from their state meet which attracted some 750 entrants, are expected to again dominate the big "roaring grand" and grab off the major portion of the $50,000 in purses.

Trapshooting is a peculiar sport. The professionals shoot for trophies only—never for cash while the amateurs get the money purses. That is just opposite the way most sports operate.

The roaring grand, too, is probably the only major sports event where an admission charge for spectators is assessed with the idea of holding down the crowd. A free gate, officials of the Amateur Trapshooting Assn. have decided, would result in so many sightseers that the contestants couldn't get to the trapline in time to fire their rounds.

Shelby Blanks Attica, 2 to 1

SHELBY—With Hart striking out ten opposing batters, the Shelby Blues defeated Attica, 2-0, on the high school field here yesterday.

Shelby wasted little time in scoring in the first frame. Lucas walked, went to third on Zeiters' single and rode home on a hit by Jake Gates. Gates scored the final tally when he was safe on an error, stole second and came home on a wild throw by the visiting shortstop.

The Blues will meet the Shelby Settlement nine in a return game at 2:30 p. m., Sunday on the high school diamond. The Blues have won five and lost three.

Browns Go Into Early Lead, 5-2

ST. LOUIS—(INS)—The St. Louis Browns nearly slapped one of Lou Boudreau's utterances back into his teeth last night at Sportsman's park in St. Louis.

"Hold the top clubs even," Boudreau had said in effect, "and beat the ears off the bums."

The Browns, currently dwelling in seventh place in the American league, apparently took exception to Boudreau's classification of them as "bums" for they nearly burst Cleveland's first-place bubble last night.

But veteran Joe Gordon came through with his 14th and 15th home runs of the season to give Cleveland an 8-6 victory and keep the Tribe that scant half-game ahead of the Philadelphia Athletics.

Don Black, injured in practice only two days ago, went to the hill for Cleveland, and pitched to only three batters, retiring none. Ed Klieman was called on to relieve Black, and was followed by Gromek, the eventual winner, Bob Lemon and Russ Christopher.

Both teams appeared headed for big nights at bat from the first inning on. Cleveland opened with two runs in that frame, and the Browns scored four of their own.

St. Louis notched another tally in the second, but Gordon's first home run of the evening, with Manager Boudreau aboard in the sixth, narrowed the St. Louis margin to one run.

The Indians pushed across three more runs in the sixth with the aid of Gordon's second homer and added another marker in the seventh to clinch the outcome.

Indian Crowds Give Players A Rough Time

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—As far as the Cleveland Indians are concerned, "there's no place like away from home."

A veteran member of the Tribe, who asked that his name be withheld, said today "every man on the ball club, though he won't admit it to the press, would rather play ball on the road than have to take that 'gaff' from the supercharged crowd in Cleveland."

"I can speak for just about the whole ball club," he said. "I travel with them and I live with them and I know what they talk about. We just don't play the same kind of ball at home that we do on the road, simply because of the fan reaction there. So we'd rather play on the road where we have better than a 50-50 chance."

HOT ON ROAD

The Indians, who now lead the league by only half a game, have won 24 games and lost only eight on the road, holding better than a .500 percentage rating in every other city in the circuit.

But in Cleveland, in nearly the same number of games and against the same opposition, they have an even 16-16 record. In their last home stand they won only six and lost nine.

"We're not trying to alibi," the player continued, "we're simply facing facts. On the road, win or lose, we're a better ball club because the pressure isn't there."

Ashland Indian Miscues Give Gorman-Rupp Ninth

The Ashland Indians made two errors last night and Mansfield Gorman-Rupp turned them both into runs to protect its undefeated league record with a 2-1 victory.

It was Gorman-Rupp's ninth league win, the team having already clinched the first half championship of the North-Central Ohio Inter-City league.

Bobby Regula of Gorman-Rupp and Bob Renny of Ashland locked horns in a three-hit pitching duel but Renny's teammates made a pair of miscues at fatal times.

Miller, Ashland left-fielder, let in the first run when he let Kenny Windsor's single roll through him for a three-base error in the first inning. That tied the score, Pete Risser having put Ashland ahead with a home run in the top half of the frame.

WINNING RUN

Neither team threatened again until Gorman-Rupp got its tally in the fourth. Windsor led off with a walk, but Pete Campbell popped up in attempting to sacrifice. Hough bunted Windsor to second and then Manager Nick Weber hit a high bouncer to the left side of the diamond. It went for a hit, and Windsor scooted all the way home from second as the third-baseman and shortstop kicked it around.

Bob Falkenburg Wins Wimbledon Net Championship

WIMBLEDON, Eng.—(INS)—The Wimbledon tennis championships went into the final day of play today with Americans assured of three titles.

California's Bob Falkenburg started the parade yesterday when he rallied to beat Australia's John Bromwich in the Men's singles final, 7-5, 0-6, 6-2, 3-6, 7-5.

An American victory was assured in the women's singles final between Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Doris Hart of Miami, Fla.

The women's doubles also presented an all-American final with Miss Hart and Mrs. Patricia Canning Todd of La Jolla, Calif., opposing Miss Brough and Mrs. Margaret Osborne duPont of Wilmington, Del.

Two American women, paired with Australians, also were in the final of the mixed doubles. Miss Brough and Bromwich clash with Miss Hart and Frank Sedgman.

In the men's doubles final, Tom Brown of San Francisco, and Gardnar Mulloy of Miami, Fla., oppose the Australian pair, Bromwich and Sedgman.

Cotton Wins British Open

MUIRFIELD, Scotland —(UP)— Ancient Henry Cotton, the dean of Great Britain's golfers, had his third British open golf title today but it was the only one of five championships that Britain managed to save from invading Americans this year.

Cotton, who previously won the British open in 1934 and 1937, won again yesterday with a 284 after putting together a 75 and 72 in the last two rounds.

Closest American to Cotton was Burly Johnny Bulla of Phoenix, Ariz., who tied for sixth place with 291. Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., winner of the British amateur title, was out of the money with 297.

There's No Joy In Flatbush Today As Bums Look Like Bums and Wind Up In Cellar of the National League

By RALPH RODEN
(AP Sports Writer)

There's no joy in Flatbush today. The once mighty Bums are in last place in the National league.

Manager Lippy Durocher's defending champion Brooklyn Dodgers hit rock bottom last night before 33,104 at Ebbets field.

The New York Giants applied the coup de grace, scoring three times in the ninth inning to take a 6-4 decision.

Durocher, attempting to halt a five game losing streak, inserted three catchers, and a rookie outfielder in the starting lineup.

Catcher Bruce Edwards was at third, Gil Hodges at first and Roy Campanella behind the plate. Recruit George Shuba, up from Mobile of the Southern association, was in left field.

Campanella collected two singles and a double and scored twice, including a run in a two run Dodger eighth inning that enabled the Brooks to take a 4-3 lead.

But then came the ninth. Willard Marshall opened the ninth with a homer off Rex Barney, third Brooklyn pitcher, to tie the score. Buddy Kerr followed with a single and moved to second on a sacrifice. Whitey Lockman was intentionally walked but Les Layton and Johnny Mize hit consecutive singles to score Kerr and Lockman with the deciding runs.

Moving past the Dodgers were the Chicago Cubs and the Cincinnati Reds. The Cubs moved from eighth to seventh and the Reds from seventh to sixth place as all major league teams played night games.

Chicago turned back the Pirates, 5-1, at Pittsburgh and the Reds handed the second place St. Louis Cardinals their fourth straight defeat, 7-3, at Cincinnati.

The loss dropped the Cards three and a half games back of the front-running Boston Braves who beat the Phillies, 7-3, at Philadelphia.

The Cleveland Indians remained a half game ahead of the Philadelphia Athletics in tight American league pennant race.

The Indians came from behind and beat the Browns, 8-6 at St. Louis with Joe Gordon's pair of two-run homers accounting for the triumph.

At Boston, the Athletics turned back the Red Sox, 4-2, behind the six hit pitching of Rookie Lou Brissie. It was the A's ninth win in their last ten starts.

The third place Yankees were nosed out, 2-1, in 12 innings by the Washington Senators in New York. Carden Gillenwater broke up a pitchers' duel between Walt Masterson and the Yanks' Tommy Byrne by crashing his first home run of the year in the 12th inning. Masterson yielded only three hits.

The victory moved the Senators over the Detroit Tigers into fifth place by a half game. The Tigers dropped a 5-2 decision to the White Sox in Chicago.

Ray Malaska's Coolridge Ace With 33 Tally

Ray Malaska easily posted the lowest score in the Coolridge club golf league last night.

He banged a one-under-par 33, a four stroke margin over seven other members of the 10-team league. Tied with the 37's were: Jim Musille, Vin Malaska, Ed Blonston, Steve Stirtzinger, Joe Mayer, Pete Zimmerman and Phil Schwaner.

Mansfield Grays Win Over Chicago Club In 9th, 3-2

The Mansfield Grays pushed over the winning tally in the last half of the ninth inning yesterday at Blue Goose diamond to defeat the visiting Chicago Brown Bombers by a 3-2 score.

The game was the first of three benefits for the family of Foster Burggraf. Others will be tomorrow in a double-header against Canton Yale Clothes and Monday in a single game against Lakemore Army-Navy. About $200 was realized from last night's game and will be turned over to the Burggrafs.

Jack Hammet was both the batting and pitching hero of last night's game. He fanned ten visiting batters and drove in the winning run himself with a single in the last half of the ninth. His hit batted in Wilbur Wade who had doubled to break a 2-2 deadlock which had been in effect since the fifth inning.

Williams, Chicago left-fielder, had tied the game in the fifth with a long home run over the right field wall.

Dutch Harrison Leads Motor City Golf Meet

DETROIT —(UP)— With his putter waving like a magic wand, E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Little Rock, Ark., led the way into the third round of the motor city open golf tournament today with a 36-hole score of 137 and a one-stroke lead.

Right on Harrison's heels, however, were four players tied for second at 138.

Olympic Trials Enter Final Day

MILWAUKEE —(INS)— United States olympic candidates enter the payoff round of the National AAU track and field championships today in a desperate attempt to regain "face" against two non-American contenders.

When all was said and done early this morning at the end of 45 first-day AAU events in the Marquette University stadium at Milwaukee, the story was little more than the tale of two foreign-born runners who'll compete in the colors of their native lands come olympic time next month.

One of them, Herb McKenley of Jamaica, British West Indies, cracked a tenth-of-a-second off the world's record in the 400-meter run by winning his trial heat in :45.9.

The other, Lloyd Labeach of Panama, won his trial in the 200-meter dash in :20.9 to tie the revered American mark for that distance around one turn.

Both were back for more today as the senior finals of the AAU, ticketing six fortunate finishers in each event to next week's U.S. olympic final trials at Evanston, Ill., began on the Marquette cinders.

It was thus, glowering, that America's champions put their best feet forward with an unaccustomed vehemence that produced the great Harrison Dillard in the dual role of hurdler and sprinter.

Dillard, the Baldwin-Wallace ace who is undefeated in 82 consecutive races—exclusive of trial heats—won easily in the 110-meter hurdle prelims yesterday.

He did this only after making good an oft-intoned promise and entering one of the six trial heats in the 100-meter dash. His winning time—:10.5 against the wind—was equalled by only one other heat winner—the calamitous Labeach.

Gene Cole, the Lancaster, O., high school star, failed to qualify in a :47.8 quartermile heat.

Summer's First Open Air Service Set for Sunday Night

Rev. Shook To Speak In South Park

Sermon to Follow Independence Theme

The first open air service of Mansfield churches will be held tomorrow at 7 p. m. in South park under sponsorship of the Mansfield Ministerial association. It will be the fourth consecutive summer of open air Sunday evening worship.

The First United Presbyterian church will conduct tomorrow's services and the pastor, Rev. Charles L. Shook, will preach on the subject, "Slavery, or Freedom, Which?," a theme in keeping with the national Independence Day holiday.

"With our liberties ebbing away," Rev. Shook said in speaking of his sermon subject, "the two alternatives, slavery or freedom, are before the people of our great nation. Our future and the future of the nation will be determined by the choice that is made."

Music will be presented by Mrs. Isabelle Conant. She will sing "Lead Kindly Light," by Newman.

REV. CHARLES L. SHOOK

Another feature will be the appearance of the new Junior choir under the direction of Charles Wolfgang.

PUBLIC INVITED

"A cordial invitation is extended to all the churches and all the people of Mansfield and vicinity to observe the Fourth of July by attending this open air service," Rev. Shook said.

In case of rain, the service will be held at the Central Methodist church, Park avenue west and Sycamore street

In morning worship hours in Mansfield tomorrow pastors will likewise observe the Independence Day theme with special sermons.

Rev. John G. Gensel at the St Paul Lutheran will preach on the subject, "Christian Liberty."

At the First Christian church, Rev. Ben F. Hagelbarger will speak on the theme, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," and Rev. Carveth P. Mitchell has chosen "The Tree of American Destiny" as his sermon for the First Lutheran congregation.

Rev. Willard J Shawk's sermon will be woven around the subject, "Which Way Freedom?" while Rev C. A Portz of St Mark's Lutheran will use the theme "Peace Is Our Business."

Micaiah, a Prophet of Israel

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—I Kings 22:1-40.

Distributed by King Features Syndicate
7-3-48

King Ahab of Israel and Jehoshaphat of Judah consulted together about warring with Syria. Ahab called his prophets and they said the Lord was in favor of such a war.

Jehoshaphat called for Macaiah, prophet of the Lord, and the messenger sent for him told him he better favor the king, but Micaiah said he would say what the Lord told him.

Micaiah said the Lord had spoken evil against Ahab and he would not win over the Syrians, which angered Ahab, and the king ordered Micaiah to prison until his return.

The two kings went to battle, and one of the Syrian king's men shot an arrow at Ahab that pierced through his armor and killed him.

Bishop Says 'No' to Bid

WHEELING, W Va. — (U.P.) — Bishop John J Swint of the Wheeling diocese of the Roman Catholic church, Friday turned down an invitation to attend a beauty pageant at Moundsville next Monday.

Bishop Swint was invited by the contest's sponsors, who said they wanted him to see that the pageant was not "degrading and immoral." They sent the invitation after he said that any Catholic girl in his diocese would face excommunication from the church if she entered such a contest.

In a letter to the sponsors, Bishop Swint said that he still held to his belief that if they took out "the nakedness from the contest the whole thing would fall to pieces."

Bishop Swint also said in his letter that he has received 125 letters since he issued his ruling on the contests. Most of them were from non-Catholics, he said, and 89 congratulated him on his stand and 36 expressed opposition.

One Catholic girl, Mariruth Ford, 18, of Kingwood, ignored his warning and won the "Miss Wheeling" pageant earlier this week. Two girls, however, withdrew from the same contest because of the bishop's threat

Dead were Dr. Charles Ryan Adams, 73, Parkville, Mo, and his wife, Mrs. Myra Oldfather Adams 72.

Dr Adams and his wife were on vacation from their work at the Parkville Community (Presbyterian) church. He had been scheduled to speak at the Covenant Presbyterian church in Springfield, O., Sunday.

East-West Battles Due

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(U.P.)—United Nations officials predict some angry East-West battles when the 58 U.N. members meet at Paris next September in the 1948 session of the general assembly.

There was speculation, none of it confirmable in official Soviet circles, that Moscow was thinking this time of a universal non-aggression pact. It would invite all the 58 members nations to sign it.

The general assembly docket, while it is yet to be drafter, is destined to contain half a dozen issues sure to arouse disputes between East and West.

Some of them are:

The American-led campaign to extend for at least another year the life of the "Little U.N. Assembly," the agency established and put into operation after last year's assembly in spite of a Soviet bloc boycott.

The Korean problem, also the target of a Soviet boycott and the focal point of the East-West stalemate in Far Eastern affairs.

The Balkans problem, on which the Russian-boycotted U.N. investigating commission will elaborate soon with a new report charging that Soviet Balkan proteges are helping the communists in Greece.

The Palestine situation, which everybody here thinks will be as touchy and as perplexing as ever when the assembly meets.

The Austrian question, which most diplomats believe will be tossed into the assembly by the western countries in an effort to break the present Big Four stalemate.

And, probably, the question of Berlin, or of Germany as a whole.
